

International Association of Social Sciences Information Service and Technology 2nd African Regional Workshop 4th - 7th October 2022
Tuesday, 4th October 2022
TIME ZONE: WAT — WEST AFRICAN TIME
08:00- 09:00 Preparation, Registration of workshop delegates
Main auditorium 09:00 – 11:00 Opening Ceremony Opening Prayer Remarks from the Chair National Organizing Committee Music interlude Speech from Representative of IASSIST Africa Regional Office Speech from President of IASSIST Music interlude Speech from Vice Chancellor/Guest of Honor Official opening of workshop Photo shoot/Media interviews
11:00-11:30 Health Break
11:30-12:10 Keynote speech Main auditorium Chair: Prof. Abiola Abioye Speaker: Prof Sandra Canon – IASSIST President Title: Data Literacy and the Fourth Industrial Revolution ***
12:10-1:00pm Overview of IASSIST Africa Chapter Prof Constant Obura-Okello
13:00-14:00 Lunch break
14.00-15:30 Theme: Data Literacy and Considerations for Industrial Development Chair: Winny Nekesa Akullo Dr. Adefunke Sarah Ebijuwá Integrating Data Literacy into Information Literacy Programmes: Any Difference?
Dr. Bonifacio Flavio Enhancing Data Literacy Teaching Data Analysis
Dr. Sophia V. Adeyeye & Taofeek Abiodun Oladokun Application of Emerging Technologies for Research Support in Nigerian Academic Libraries: Trends, Problems and Prospects

 DATES: 4th - 7th October, 2022 VENUE: CONFERENCE CENTRE (Opposite Chapel of Resurrection) University of Ibadan, Nigeria Theme : Data Literacy and the Fourth Industrial Revolution
Prof. Oluwayemisi Babalola New Forms Of Capitalism In The Fourth Industrial Revolution: Implications For Higher Education in Nigeria
15:30-16:00 Health Break
Special Parallel Sessions 16:00-17:20
Room 1	Room 2
Theme: Data Collection and Preservation Chair: Prof. Abiola Abioye	Sub-theme: Fourth Industrial Revolution (4IR): Readiness and Future Considerations Chair:
Dr. Akinniyi Adeleke Data Literacy and Linked Data Management, Whither Nigerian Librarians?	Luke Okello The role of emerging ICT technology trends in facilitating realization of the 4 th industrial revolution in Africa
Dr. Benson Oweghoro Data Collection and Record Preservation in University College Hospital. Ibadan, Nigeria	Olatunbosun Obileye Scaling up data services with standard ontology
Dr. Sunday Tunmibi & Prof. Wole Olatokun Security and Preservation of Election Data in Nigeria in the Fourth Industrial Revolution	Dr. Abiola Omotosho 4IR and its impact on learning in academic institutions
End of Day One
Wednesday, 5th October 2022
08:00 – 9:00 Preparation, Registration of Workshop delegates
09:00-10:30 Keynote Speech Main auditorium Chair: Olatunbosun Obileye Speaker: Prof. Wole Olatokun
10:30 – 11:00 Health Break
11.00-13.00 Theme: Data Protection Legislations Chair: Dr. Akinniyi Adeleke
Judith Nyangoma Data Protection Legislations
Andrew Mankone Data Protection Registration Laws: Case study of Kenyan Legislative
Dr.Emily J. Ng’eno Legal and Policy Framework is a Throttlehold to a Successful Research Data Management in Kenya’s Agricultural Research Institutes

Special and Parallel Sessions 14:00-15:30
Room 1	Room 2
Theme: Issues with the Fourth Industrial Revolution and Development Programs Chair: Dr. Adetoun Adebisi Oyelude	Workshop Session Chair: Dr. Abiola Omotosho
Dr. Esther Oluwayemi Jatto Libraries and the Fourth Industrial Revolution	Olatunbosun Obileye Digital data collection and aggregation (offline and online) with ODK
Dr. Ibrahim Aliyu Library as Tool for Sustainable Peace and National Development
15:30-16:00 Break
Special and Parallel Sessions 16:00-17:00
Poster Session Chair: Ms. Winny Nekesa Akullo	Theme: Indigenous Knowledge, Data Literacy and Factors of Production Management Chair: Prof. Abiola Abioye
Andrew Ojulung Library Services During Covid-19 Pandemic and the 4IR Opportunities	Folasade Oguntayo Data Literacy and Indigenous Knowledge Management
Adetoun Adebisi Oyelude Doing Data Designs Innovatively with the 4IR	Ebelechukwu Ajuka & Wole Michael Olatokun Conversational Characteristics Of Medical Professionals On Ebola Virus Disease In The Medscape Network
Grace Temilolu Ikenna Influence of Digitization on Preservation of Intellectual Property of Academics in University of Ibadan	Grace Oladoyin Awareness and Perception of Librarians towards the use of cloud-based technology in academic libraries
Cocktail 18:30-22:00
End of Day 2

Thursday, 7th October 2022
08:00- 09:00 Preparation, Registration of workshop delegates
09:00-10:00 Sponsors Session (Emerald and DDI)
10:00-10:30 Health Break
Parallel sessions 10:30-12:00
Room 1	Room 2
Theme: Data Literacy and Tertiary Education Chair: Prof. Wole Olatokun	Theme: AI, Robotics, Data Literacy and the Wealth of Modern Nations Chair: Dr. Benson Oweghoro
Anna Leonard, Kingsley Egbukole, Josiline Phiri Chigwada & Gilbert Mushi The State of Embedded Librarianship in the University Research Processes in African Academic Libraries	Adetoun A. Oyelude, Dr. Olanike A. Alabi & Oluwatosin Omorinkoba There is a “He” in Every “She”: AI, Robotics and Data Literacy in the Fourth Industrial Revolution

Idris Oladipo Rethinking Teacher Professional Development at Basic Education Levels in Nigeria for the New Digital World	Olatunbosun Obileye Data Submission App
Oluwatosin Ologbosere Data Literacy and Higher Education in the 21st Century of Academic Staff of Lead City University	Prof. E. Olawale Ogunkola Artificial Intelligence, Future of Work and Higher Education in Nigeria
Dr. Shoji Nobubele The use of Datathons as a tool for Data literacy – A South African Perspective
Workshop closing ceremony and speech 12:20-13:00 Speaker: Vice Chancellor, University of Ibadan, Ibadan
Lunch and Departure 13:00-14:00 N.B. Excursion/Tour around Ibadan City on Friday 6th October 2022 from 14:30-17:00 at the delegates own cost

Our Sponsors:

